

Cyberbullying is now more common than face-to-face bullying among 9-16 year-olds*

of parents ask their children for advice on technology

Know this stuff matters, but don't know where to turn?

If you need information and support when it comes to your children's e-safety, we can help. You'll find tips and practical advice to show you the best ways to keep them safe online, whatever they're doing.

internet
matters.org

learn about it / talk about it / deal with it

*Source: EU Kids Online (2014).

Source: OnePoll survey of parents of 5-11 year olds (Sep 2014).

Keeping children safe online matters

And that's why we're here.

Internet Matters is a free online resource for every parent in the UK. We bring all the information you need to keep your kids safe on the web into one, easy-to-use portal, helping you make confident, informed decisions on all the big e-safety topics.

Learn about it

From sexting to cyberbullying, find advice on everything that matters when it comes to children's online safety.

Deal with it

Discover other expert resources for specific issues your child might face online.

Talk about it

Know the best ways to approach these subjects and have open, honest discussions with your child.

internet
matters.org

learn about it / talk about it / deal with it